1.Which part of converting the paper into LaTeX was easiest?

Answer- Converting the into latex code from text format was easiest , there was only required to copy and paste the required section or sub-section and prism has done everything from formatting to adjusting the text .

47. Which part required the most manual effort?
Answer- Creating table and image was very difficult mange as it required manual effort to adjust the thing and bring them in proper format. First images were dragged into the search section the prompt given .

48. Which Prism feature was most useful and why?
Answer - Although prism is very good tool for writing and debugging the research paper .

49. Did Prism introduce any technical, citation, numerical, or scientific errors?
Answer- Yes, initially there was some problem but it got fixed after consecutive effort .

50. How much manual correction was required?
Answer- Certain sections like adjusting images and referencing required manual correction.

51. Did the same project compile in Overleaf without modification?
Answer - yes the same project got compiled without any modification.

52. What precautions should researchers take when using AI for scientific writing?
Answer - though tools like prisma are very goog but they can make mistake like they can misplace the table as well as images.